HOLD ON TIGHT - Bull riding was one of the events held at the Stoney Lake Rodeo last weekend. Elk Point native Erica Nielson was the only local winner at the rodeo.

Stoney Lake Rodeo boasts local winner

But her time remained the best giving her the win.

This is the last year of Junior Barrel Racing for the 16-year-old and she is planning to hit the ladies circuit next year with her horse Jane.

This is the first season for Jane and the mount has performed well all year, but this was by far the best showing for the tandem.

"I have to have a good horse if I want to ride Ladies Barrel Racing next year and she (Jane) will definitely be my horse," she added.

In other events, Troy Tatttrie of Youngstown took the Bareback event with a 70 point score on the horse named Indian Sign. It was just another example of what Tatttrie has been able to do this year. As of June 10 he was leading the Lakeland Rodeo Association (LRA) standings with 2174.80 points.

The weather held up for the 35th Stoney Lake Rodeo last weekend and that suited Elk Point native Erica Nielson who won the Junior Barrel Racing.

On Sunday afternoon Nielson and her mount ran the course in a time of 17.232 seconds.

This was Nielson's first win this year and it was special doing it so close to home.

"It was exciting. I had a lot of family at the rodeo including my grandma from Edmonton," said Nielson.

"I felt like I was having a pretty good run, but it wasn't till the third turn that I thought I could win."

Then she had to wait for the rest of the field to finish which included some good riders such as one rider who had ridden on the pro circuit before.

Jamie Schnurer named Saddle Slickers All-Around winner

Senior 4-H member Jamie Schnurer won the All-Around award sponsored by ReMax Lakeland Realty at last weekend's Elk Point Saddle Slickers Achievement Day. The award is presented to the 4-Her who exhibits the best 4-H qualities throughout the year, and is based on attitude, cooperation, participation, promotion of 4-H, attendance and willingness to practice. Points assessed during the year came down to a tie between Ashley Larson and Jamie Schnurer, with both young ladies asked to give an impromptu speech on the meaning of 4-H in their lives to break the tie.

The July 5 achievement day was judged by Kim Eremko, with Joyce Larson as announcer, Hughie Krucik as show secretary and Marion Ryan and Brian Schnurer as ring stewards.

Family vacations — a challenge

By Deanna Easthope
FCSS Director

Summer is here and "Family Vacations" have begun! This can be a challenging time for some families. After all, during the seasons of fall, winter and spring, our children are doing their "own thing" as they were enrolled in school and a number of their own activities. Family time was limited and had to be planned if it was going to happen.

Now it is summer and Family Vacation time. For some families, this may be the first real time all family members will be together spending time doing something together. This can be a surprising experience. It is like a surprise when we discover each member of the family has different likes and dislikes and doing something together with the goal of everyone enjoying it becomes a challenge for the family. The "how to enjoy" one's own family becomes the focus.

When I think about "how to enjoy" one's own family, I am reminded of the story of the boss who handed the new employee a broom. "Sweep up that mess in the stockroom," he commanded. "But, sir," objected the employee, "I'm a college graduate." "Oh, well; in that case," replied the employer, "come — I'll show you how."

Likewise, in our families, the employer is likened to the parents. It seems to be the parents who need to show the children how to enjoy being with the family. Loving one another and enjoying being with one another begins with the parents. From their example, children will model. Yes, I know that as the children get older and are in their teenage years, loving one another can become a challenge. However, families are important at any age.

Another expression I like to remember which can be applied to the family is: "The three Cs of failure: Criticism, Condemnation, and Complaining. The three Cs of success: Compassion, Courage, and Commitment."

When we apply the three Cs of success, I know we will be able to enjoy our families during the "Family Vacation" time as well as any other time of the year.

May you all experience a happy, enjoyable family vacation this summer! Happy holidays, everyone!

HEAD OUT FOR SUMMER ADVENTURE

TIC talk

By Sherry Pelech
Tourist Information Clerk

The Elk Point Chamber of Commerce hosted another successful Canada Day Pancake Breakfast this year. As always, we could not have served more than 800 breakfasts in two and a half hours without the help of many, many volunteers. (That's an amazing 5.3 breakfasts every minute.)

And speaking of amazing statistics, here is a rundown on Pancake '97. We consumed: 56 kg. of pancake flour; 130 lb. of sausages; approximately 900 each of plates, cups, forks, knives, etc.; 2000 paper serviettes, 700 butter pats; 28 liters of syrup, 2 kg. of coffee, 12 packages of juice powder, 1000 creamers; And we used up more than 30 volunteers.

We would like to thank the Town crew for their help with tables, planks and garbage cleanup, Home Town Grocers for getting the coffee on and being all-around good guys; Empress Family Restaurant for accommodating our pancake batter mixers, Footprints and Leona Bretzer for cooking the sausages, John Vandenburg for bringing us the County griddle, Vincent Building Supplies for loaning the bench boards, the Co-op for supplying us again with milk crates for the benches, Pan Canadian Petroleum and the County of St. Paul for loaning us their big griddles, the United Church, FCSS and Pioneer Circle for the loan of their coffee makers, 4-H for the loan of their juice cooler and Faye Smith for the loan of her juice cooler and tables, Alberta Wheat Pool for supplying us with pancake mix, Harry Davidson and Jordan Pelech for being good go-fers and the Treasury Branch and Toronto Dominion Bank for the cups.

Nutrition notes

Women and heart disease

By Shelley Miller-Hertes
Registered Dietician, Elk Point Health Centre

Did you know?

* Heart and blood vessel disease is the #1 killer of women today.

* Heart disease accounts for over 40% of all female deaths in Canada.

* One in three women, aged 65-plus, has some type of heart and blood vessel disease.

If this information surprises you, you are not alone.

Traditionally, heart disease has been viewed as a man's disease. But it is also a women's disease, although it tends to appear 6 to 10 years later in women. Women often miss the early signals or they wait too long before seeking help.

KNOW THE RISK FACTORS

1. Family history of heart disease
2. Age / menopause
3. Diabetes
4. Smoking

5. High blood pressure
6. High blood cholesterol
7. Lack of exercise
8. Excess body fat
9. Stress

Here is how you can take control of your heart health:

A. Healthy eating is one of the best ways to reduce your blood cholesterol and risk of heart disease.

1. Enjoy generous servings of fruits and vegetables at meals and for snacks.

2. Choose lowfat cuts of meat or poultry and limit your serving to the size of a deck of playing cards.

3. Switch from homogenized milk to 2%, then to 1%, and finally to skim milk as your taste buds adjust.

4. Choose lower fat cheeses and yogurts.

5. Opt for lower fat baked goods.

6. When cooking, use (in moderation) liquid oils or soft margarine instead of hard fats such as butter or shortening.

7. When choosing a soft margarine, select one that is low in saturated fat and non-hydrogenated. Spread it thinly on bread, toast and vegetables.

8. Build your meal around whole grains, pasta, or rice, as well as fresh vegetables and fruit.

B. Improve your lifestyle

1. Become smoke-free.

2. Be active! Exercise at least 30 minutes three times per week. Alternatively, three 10-minute walks each day also contribute to a healthier heart.

3. Achieve and maintain a healthy body weight.

4. Take a break when life becomes stressful. Go easy on yourself!

5. Ask your doctor to check your blood pressure and blood cholesterol, and educate yourself on what the results mean.

6. If you have reached menopause, discuss with your doctor whether or not hormone replacement is appropriate for you.

Hope this information helps you take care of your body. Remember, your health is up to you!

Celebrate Parks Day at Whitney Lakes!

Join in the fun on July 19, 1997 and celebrate Canada's Parks Day at Whitney Lakes Provincial Park! There are plenty of activities happening so jump in your car or camper for Parks Day or the entire weekend at Whitney Lakes.

In keeping with this year's Parks Day theme, "Take A Hike," Park staff have planned an Esker Hike. There will also be a scavenger hunt, and for more of a challenge, there is a guided mountain bike tour. There will be draws and prizes for participants and word in the park is that Seemore, the Alberta Parks mascot, will be making an afternoon visit.

The Provincial Park is located 27 km. east of Elk Point and less than an hour's drive from Vermilion, Lloydminster, St. Paul and Bonnyville. For more information contact the Park Office at 843-3761.

READiscover bubbles up with excitement

By Karina Mitchell
READiscover coordinator

Last week I waited and this past week I did, well, just about everything! Balloons and Bubbles was our topic and we did a pretty good job of exhausting the topic (not to mention me!).

We had fifteen 7 to 12 year olds and twenty five 3 to 6 year olds, all of whom enjoyed themselves. But that isn't too hard when you have tons of balloons, a fluorescent light tube and bubble making supplies!

What was that about a fluorescent light tube? One of the experiments we did with each group displayed the concept of static electricity by turning on a light with the power of an overcharged balloon. Just by rubbing the balloon on our heads, we created enough electricity to light up a room. (Actually, it was just a brief flash from the bulb, but still pretty cool. But we didn't need a light to do that. The faces of the children lit up enough to light the room as they tried out experiments proving concepts we had read about.

But not everything was strictly scientific. A tub of detergent and some wire made for a great time as we set thousands of bubbles free into the sunny afternoon. Some children took on the challenge of blowing the biggest bubbles while others preferred popping them.

And of course there was reading. Each group enjoyed giving their input into the stories and were all excited to take out a book at the end of the program. Each child has their own Log Book to keep track of their summer reading.

Upcoming events include a Water Day (July 17 and 22) so please come prepared to get wet. Also, the Thursday group will be going out to Whitney Lake on July 24 to check out some water bugs. So much to READiscover and so little time! Keep readin'.

Report from the Legislature

By Paul Langevin, MLA
Lac La Biche - St. Paul

Close to 130,000 Alberta families will get their first Alberta Family Employment Tax Credit (AFETC) cheques in July as a result of the provincial government's reinvestment program, based on priorities identified through consultation with Albertans. The program is designed to put money back into the pockets of the people who need it most, working families with children. Eligible families will receive a notice explaining their benefits with the cheques in late July.

The two objectives of this program are to support children in low and middle income families and to provide an incentive for the parents of these children to work. The Alberta Family Employment Tax Credit supports families both financially and through encouraging healthy values and stability. In its first year, it will provide a total of $35 million in tax credits to Alberta families.

In Calf Roping, Buck Weinrich of Rochfort Bridge, finished the event with a time of 9.5 seconds which was good enough for first place. As of June 10 Weinrich wasn't in the LRA top ten.

There was a tie for top spot in the Saddle Bronc competition. Dustin Bowman from Niton Junction and Dean McDonald from Caslan finished the event with scores of 72. Bowman road Warlord and McDonald held on to finish in the money riding Debbie.

Steve Friend of Viking won the Steer Wrestling event with a time of 4.3 seconds. As of June 10 Friend was in second place with 1905.28 points behind Dean Lawes who had 2954.09.

Novice Horse Riding was won by Trevor Wittmack of Consort with a score of 70 which he achieved on the horse

C-17.

Daryn Knapp and Dwight Wigemyr teamed up to take first place in the Team Roping. Their time of six seconds held up through the weekend. Rocky Dallyn leads the overall with 2836.83 points, but Knapp and Wigemyr were right behind in second and third place.

The Ladies Barrel Racing event was won by Jodi Hollingworth of Valleyview.

She finished with a time of 16.796 seconds. Hollingworth has 1395.37 overall which had him in tenth place in LRA standings.

David Irwin of Marshall won the Junior Bull Riding competition with a score of 74 points on the back of Homers Hope.

And in the Bullriding competition Allen Rayko of Lac La Biche won with a score of 75 on the bull named Jellybean.

Buddy wins Calgary Stampede aggregate

Dewberry's Buddy Bensmiller was the toast of the Calgary Stampede Rodeo and Derby Saturday night when he was presented with a trophy, a $10,000 bonus and the keys to a new GMC truck which he can drive free for a year.

Bensmiller's 1:16.46 Saturday run was the second fastest of the night, behind Jason Glass, and gave him a 9-night total of 11:36.72, more than 2 seconds less than closest rival Kelly Sutherland. Bensmiller, Sutherland, and the father-son duo of Tom and Jason Glass qualified for Sunday's $50,000 final race, leaving Herman Flad just out of the running for the giant cheque.

Sunday's race was not as successful for Bensmiller, however he was fast off the first barrel, but Sutherland, who drew barrel number four, was even faster and was ahead at the finish line. Tom Glass was third, and his son Jason hit the top barrel and ended up fourth.

Bensmiller ran penalty-free for the entire ten nights of racing.

Watch for photos and further details next week.
